The Recent Tremendous Democratic Meeting.

From the New York Herald, June The greatest meeting ever help in this city was that of the Democracy on Wednesday evening. It numbered thirty thousand men, including all she fighting elements of the city, manifesting such an uninitatiable bitterness of hostility against he administration as has never be States. The enthusiasm was up to the objets of the meeting, or the right hold it, would have exploded a mine let looks a volcano.

political leaders. They were opposed to it, and kept aloof. The sickly weakly parers representing Tammany Hall were against it. Yet, the rank and file of the Denecracy were there, not only of Mozert Hall, but the wh th Tammany section; all agreed tha Aministration, and that it was high time tostop the war. "Peace" is hencef th platform of the Democracy.

YANKER DESERTERS.-What is to be done with the Yankee deserters who come within our lines, is becoming a question with the Confederate military authorities. They are not invited, cannot be trusted at large when they come, and would be worse than useless in the ranks, even if they were wanted. They are a fifth wheal to our Confederate vehicle, They must be kept close as agents dangerous, to be sent as e as agente dangarous to the land; they must be fed and quartered. There are to day about one thousand scattend through the Confederacy. It has been proposed by certain efficient to create a prison for them, at Salisbury, N. C., with the adjunct of a work house, where their labor could be made available. We think well of the project, on the prin that it is best to hide an evil when it can be done.—Rickmond Examiner.

PEDERAL LOSS AT VICESBURG, -Our private dispatches from Panola state that the wounded from Vicksburg. A gentleman who lately left the enemy's lines says that the ground is literally covered for miles with the Yankee deed. They acknowledge a loss of 15,000 killed sutright. This would make their loss in killed and wounded alone to say nothing of the missing 45,000. There is probably not less than ten or fifteen thousand to be numbered in the latter category. The entire less of the enemy must, therefore reach 50,000 or 60,000 men. At such a rate, how long will the seige of Vicksburg last ! All this tre mendous damage has been inflicted upon the enemy by the garrison at Vicksburg alone. The magnificent army under Gen Johnston has not yet engaged the los .-Jackson Mississippian.
